PINANCE. There was not much deing in money circ to-day, outside the usual routine of Saturday's business. Checking and depositing went on with some more spirit, and arrangements were made for the payment of cotton to be put chased early in the coming week, or probably already bought and yet to be paid for. Curren cy comes in by evening train, and Monday will find our banks fully fortified for the stege which will then commence. All cotton bills, on whatever point, are taken at he discount, which will no doubt be the ruling rate during the sesson. Sailing at par. Bonds and stocks are quiet, but there is some movement on foot which will, we think, give City Bonds an impetus. We are not posted as to the means by which this will be brought about, nor do we know the parties who are working the matter, but we are satisfied that as soon as money becomes easier, City Bonds will be a soon as money becomes easier, City Bonds will be a soon as money becomes easier, City Bonds will be a soon as money becomes easier, City Bonds will be a soon as money becomes easier, City Bonds will be a soon as money becomes easier, City Bonds will be a soon as money becomes easier, City Bonds will be a soon as money becomes easier, City Bonds will be a soon as money becomes easier, City Bonds will be a soon as money becomes easier, City Bonds will be a soon as money becomes easier, City Bonds will be a soon as money becomes easier, City Bonds and City Bonds are believed by the city Bonds and City Bonds and City Bonds are believed by the will jump upward, and will pass the charmed Moral which they now faller and cannot sur-
